At Forty-Five Cents A Dozen
The University of British Columbia have thought up some fiendish ideas to promulgate their current campaign to raise $500,000 for a Memorial Gymnasium. Over $1,200 was raised by the Jokers Club when 3,500 students burst into the cafeteria, and bid frantically for raw eggs to crack over some poor Jokers' head. In the interest of the cause eggs were unmercifully massaged into his hair and face, and egg yolk was allowed to slide gently down his throat. Looks like the yolk was all over the Yokers Club. . . . That's a yoke son! . . . Pheew! What a smell, we must have laid another egg.

Pie-Eyed

Yet another stunt was the auctioning of a large goosey raspberry pie, which was thrown at some other unfortunate member of the Jokers' Club. An outraged housewife complained at the waste of rationed sugar as a result of this stunt. She protested the action of "spineless brats who have never seen overseas service." The veterans attending the university got very indignant over this, and are collecting sugar in envelopes, together with the donors name, his record of war service, and his decorations. The woman in question will be given this sugar if she comes across and contributes to the campaign.

THE WAR IS OVER

"Maids Escort At Household Economics Dance Tuesday," The Gate-way flagrantly announces in one of its heads. Well, this is a sure indication that peacetime conditions have returned once again. Imagine being able to call up the Employment Agency and procure some luscious domestic help to help you paint the town a light red.

AT LAST — COLUMNISTS ARE APPRECIATED

Attention all reprobrates who weekly bang out a so-called witty column, which is never read or appreciated. The Canadian Writers Association is going to launch a drive for a $100,000 endowment fund to help needy writers. No longer will you have to dig ditches in order to raise sufficient funds for a meal, no longer will Tunis and Clemens have to mooch cigarettes, you can apply to the endowment fund set up solely for your express benefit. . . . Hey, can anybody stake me to a car ticket? I wanna go home.

ANYBODY WANNA BUY AN AMBER?

An advertisement caught our attention in the Varsity, it seems that an enterprising firm got the idea of labelling the material for men's suits with enticing names, as is the fashion with every article of feminine apparel from lipstick to snoods. Anyway, this parsimonious (this column is obviously written by a genius) merchant advertised three different bolts of cloth under the titles Kitty, Amber, and Scarlett, with a comment in brackets stating that they are "so round, so (Continued on Page Four.)"

University of Alberta is inaugurating a new four year degree course by which graduates receive B. Ed. in physical education. This course is the first of its kind in the west and will probably start next fall or in any case by 1947.

Varsity: Babs Flint, plaintiff, in five thousand dollar breach of promise suit against Don Harmon, campus comedian, was awarded one dollar damages "to buy a keg of beer in which to drown her sorrows." The hearing was conducted at a crowded special session of the moot court, Monday night.

University of Western Ontario plans to build a $250,000 addition to their Science Building. This marks the beginning of a $2,500,000 building project for which assistance has been requested from Ontario government. Premier Drew promises to consider the matter.

Revue Prepares For Presentation On Wed. Mar. 13

Turn of Century Saw Forerunner Of Coming Event

The Red and White Revue of 1946 will be presented at Moyse Hall on the nights of March 13th, 14th, 15th, and 16th, Wednesday to Saturday, with a matinee on Saturday, March 16th, it was announced last night.

This is the first Revue to be staged since 1940, as wartime restrictions during the intervening years caused the abandonment of McGill's annual stage production. This is also the nineteenth edition of the Revue, the first edition being put on at His Majesty's Theatre in 1900, under the title of "McGill Theatre Night".

The show was then discontinued until 1924, and from that year until 1930, when the Revue was presented at Moyse Hall, the production alternated between His Majesty's and the St. Denis Theatre. Ever since the 1930 edition, the Revue has been staged at Moyse Hall. The Revue of 1940, the last presentation, only ran for three nights with a matinee; however it was decided to stage an extra show this year. In the old days the Revue used to run for a full week, but now that the budget has been restricted, and due to the shortage of materials, it has been cut down to five performances.

A change of policy has been adopted by the Directors this year. In the past the Revue consisted of a number of acts and acts, set to a musical background; however this year's show will have a coordinated plot, and will be divided up into three Acts. There will still be the original music, and the various dances and routines as presented by the chorus and the diverse soloists.

The Board of Directors stated last night that the Red and White Revue of 1946 will be worthy of the high standard set by past editions. In fact it is predicted to be one of the best Revues ever to be staged on this campus.

Pre-Med Society Will Hold Dance

Five-Piece Orchestra Plays at Semi-formal In the Berkeley Hotel

The Pre-Medical students of McGill are doing it again. For the first time since the Society was founded 10 years ago. The Society is climaxing their season with a semi-formal, to be held in the Berkeley Hotel on March 1st, commencing at 9.00 p.m. There is going to be a five-piece orchestra giving with the "swing and sway" until 2.00 in the morning.

Refreshments will be served in the dining room of the Hotel around mid-night and will be "on the house."

Tickets are now on sale in the Union Tuck Shop at $2.00 a couple. Don't forget that all faculties are welcome.

DINNER FOR B.C. STUDENTS.

A dinner for British Columbians will be held in the Prince of Wales Room of the Windsor Hotel on February 28 at 7 p.m. at which President MacKenzie of the University of British Columbia will be guest of honor and speaker.

It was announced that those attending the meeting are asked to make their reservations before Sunday through Norman Walton at Elwood 5228.

WEAVING CLASS

The weaving classes are starting again this term on Thursday evening at 7.30 in R.V.C. Belt making and scarf making are done on the Inkle and Cradle looms, also a Pattern loom has been added.

Red Wing Executive Elected at Meeting

The new executive of the Red Wing Society was elected yesterday at the regular bi-monthly meeting. Anne MacDermott, last year's secretary-treasurer, is, by acclamation, president of the Society for the next 12 months. Joan Davis, formerly Third Year representative, will fill the post of secretary-treasurer.

The Red Wings are a women's organization whose functions on the campus are similar to those of the Scarlet Key. They assist in balloting in election time, usher at concerts and games, and perform other duties on the campus.

The newly-elected executive will hold office from this month until February, 1947.

Bill's Lengthy Record Features Service In Many Departments

by AL GOLD

During the past four years students in the Biology building have learned to appreciate the helpfulness of the "man behind the desk" known as Bill. His full name is Bill Robertson and by this August he will have worked for McGill University for twenty-five years.

Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, he migrated to Canada in 1907. His first job at McGill was in the workshops. From there he became grounds officer and seven years later, custodian of the Biology building.

Bill explained that his present charge has an interesting history. It was formerly the site of the old Medical building which was destroyed to a large extent by fire in 1907. Later, it was rebuilt and

Contest Dawson Engineering Post

Richard Cornell

I'm happy to have the opportunity of saying hello to my friends in First Year Engineering and at the same time introducing myself to the students I do not already know.

Not having any political experience, I am not familiar with the method of making pre-election promises which are quickly forgotten or evaded after elections. I wish, therefore, to state a number of problems existing at Dawson which I am prepared to work on in order that the situation may be improved. They are as follows:

1. Educational: Engineering library facilities are, I feel, not adequate and require a supplementary to a considerable degree. More equipment for demonstration purposes is needed for a clear understanding of some subjects. This is particularly true of physics.

2. Recreational: Dawson at the present time operates as a place for weekday day students. There is no residential college, and I feel that the recreational facilities should be available over weekends. In particular, the canteen and bowling alleys should be in use for the people who do not wish to go drinking in St. Johns or visiting the girl friends in Montreal. Books and reading material are needed in the recreational hut (No. 23) which at present has none.

3. General: There is no real system for the delivery of telegrams and important messages as is evidenced by the fact that at least one telegram which arrived in January has not yet been delivered other than by hearsay. Facilities for handling parcels and postal notes, etc., are needed at Dawson. A regular post office is required. The most convenient place for all students is to have this where the present temporary post office is.

In conclusion, I am prepared to work on and for anything that will improve the lot of the engineer in particular at Dawson in general. I ask for your approval of the above by supporting my nomination this Friday.

Lloyd R. Stafford

As nominee for the position of president of First Year Engineering I would like to put down very concisely my aims and hopes—with any cooperation at all—for the First Year Engineers at Dawson College.

My first aim, rather obvious, yet sadly needed is to somehow build up an esprit de corps among the engineers here at Dawson. This I may be able to do by a combination of many things, one or two of which I will mention.

Sports, though many fields are open, are not at all as fully organized as they should be. With the summer months coming, even more opportunities will be open than there are now, and if I can get enough cooperation just to get rolling, then I hope to be able to build it up from that. Dawson men refer to McGill as "The Sherbrooke Street Branch," which means underneath the shell of apathy there is a spirit, that if encouraged could be built up to something that everyone of us could be proud of. Engineers are outnumbered here but with such an exceptionally high percentage of them being veterans we could certainly, if you men would help me, get up teams in almost any field, or even individuals, who could down these science men in any sport either of the faculties feel like proposing.

I wonder if I make that sound as enthusiastic as I feel. What I want to do is to make people at McGill realize that the Dawson engineers are to be definitely considered from every angle. I think I can do it or at least would like to have a darn good try at it.

Another way which I shall mention very briefly is to organize with the aid of a social chairman dances and parties for the Engineers. I've had several talks with those who organized the last Dawson dance and have been able to figure out the reason why it was not the success hoped for.

Students' Council Receives Reports On Japs, NFCUS

Future C.A.Sc.W. Meetings On Campus Will Be Prohibited

At its regular weekly meeting the Students' Executive Council heard reports from the committee on the Japanese-Canadians, the National Federation of Canadian University Students, and dealt with business arising out of correspondence with the Canadian Association of Scientific Workers, and discussed various other items of administration business.

Council members Aimes and Noseworthy (Medicine and Theology) reported on the Japanese-Canadian question. They reported that as members of the Council committee appointed to deal with that subject, they attended two (Continued on Page Four.)

McGill-Brooklyn Debate Thursday In Union Ballroom

New Policy Followed By Debating Society In Ensuing Contests

When the McGill debating team vies with Brooklyn College in the Union Ballroom on Thursday at 8.15, it will be a non-decision contest.

While the Brooklyn team at McGill upholds the affirmative side of the subject "Resolved that we are winning the peace" McGill debaters will be at Brooklyn college in New York, defending the same side. The McGill team, selected by means of eliminations held two weeks ago, will consist of Sherwin Raymond, Gerry Charness, Robert Lapralle, James Hemens, and Marcel Joyal, who were picked in that order. Marcel Joyal is taking the place of James Hemens.

The Brooklyn team will be represented by Edith Brenner and Cynthia Blocker, while Marcel Joyal and Robert Lapralle contest the subject for McGill. Gerry Charness and Sherwin Raymond will travel to New York for the same purpose. The position of chairman will be held by Isadore Rosenfeld.

A non decision debate is one in which no verdict is given. Since it is the custom of many American Universities to carry on their debates according to this policy, out (Continued on Page Four.)

Dr. R. H. Wright Talks on Science

C.A.Sc.W. Continues Lecture Forum Series Next Saturday Night

That "Science is your Business" will be pointed out by Dr. R. H. Wright, Professor of Physical Chemistry of the University of New Brunswick, at a public lecture in Montreal High School on Saturday, February 23. The lecture is the fourth in Science Forum, a series of popular lectures on science sponsored by the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Association of Scientific Workers.

Dr. Wright was recently the speaker on a series of coast-to-coast talks on scientific subjects. Broadcast under the titles "Science is your Business" and "Let's Talk It Over", these talks were intended to bring to the non-scientific listener a greater understanding of the meaning and applications of science.

Born in Vancouver, B.C., Dr. Wright obtained his schooling in that city, continuing his studies at the University of British Columbia, and later at McGill. Some years ago, he received an appointment at the University of New Brunswick, where he is at present carrying on his work. He is the author of many scientific papers on Physical Chemistry.

In 1930, Dr. Wright went as a member of the Canadian delegation to the Yosemite Conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations. Saturday's meeting is open to students and public without charge.

Commerce School Calls Nominations

30 Signatures Needed To Enter Candidate In Presidency Contest

Nominations in the School of Commerce for the positions of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Undergraduate Society have been called for, it was announced last night. Elections are to be held on Monday, March 5 at the same time as the Students' Society elections while nominations are to be handed in to Mr. Fletcher in the McGill Union by next Tuesday.

Nominations for the position of President, who must be at present in his Junior year, require 30 signatures, while the others need 20 signatures. The Treasurer must at present be in his third year, the Vice-President in Second Year, and the Secretary in First Year.

In addition, it was announced that a special meeting of the undergraduate body would be held next Tuesday, at 5 p.m. to consider a change in the constitution. A quorum of ten members of the undergraduate society is needed.

At a meeting of the executive, plans were discussed for a Fourth Year banquet and funds allotted for that purpose, while the possibility of setting up a Commerce Employment Bureau and the establishing of a Russ McConnell Memorial trophy were also considered.

Quorum Question Undecided as Yet

The Students' Society of McGill University will meet again this afternoon to discuss proposed changes in the constitution of the Society at 4 o'clock in the Union Ballroom. Both Arts and Science and Engineering faculties have cancelled lectures between 4 and 5 today.

Dean J. O'Neill, head of McGill's Engineering faculty has stated that none of the lectures in Engineering which are regularly given on Wednesday afternoon at 4 will be held today. Students in the faculty will then be able to be at the meeting when it is called to order at an hour ordinarily given to lectures.

Dean Cyrus MacMillan has announced, in a message to The Daily, that all lectures in the Faculty of Arts and Science scheduled for today between 4 and 5 p.m. have been cancelled. This measure was taken to enable as many students in that faculty to attend this meeting.

MEETING EARLIER

By calling the meeting an hour earlier than those of February 7 and 13, it is hoped that the discussion will not be prolonged into the evening.

This is the third meeting called on the subject of constitutional changes. Like the previous two assemblies, its agenda includes a proposal to enlarge the quorum necessary to conduct a meeting of the Society, to increase the disciplinary powers of the Students' Executive Council, and to institute more Council control over the McGill Daily.

QUORUM UNSETTLED

When the meeting adjourned last Wednesday, the sub-amendments to Article VIII, which specifies the number of students necessary to constitute a quorum, had been defeated. The amendment itself is yet to be passed or defeated. Each of the sub-amendments provoked a great deal of discussion from the floor at the last two meetings. On February 7, several other amendments originally scheduled for debate before Article VIII were tabled until after the question of petitions and quorum had been resolved.

Untouched Topics

Among the questions which Richard Balfour, president of the Society, and as such chairman of all its meetings, has not brought before the students is the term of office of Students' Executive Council. Another is whether women students should vote to elect the representatives.

WORLD EVENTS

Ottawa—Inquiry in to the alleged Russian spy ring in Canada has uncovered a sprawling Soviet "fifth column." It has been revealed that the ring was absorbing details concerning the atomic bomb and radar development. The release of the royal commission's finding was somewhat premature, so that a check on the quickly growing spy ring could be immediately inaugurated.

Washington—The United States is continuing the shipment of tires, farm machinery and other equipment to Argentina, notwithstanding the state of relations as brought into international focus lately. This is being done to facilitate the movement of wheat to the seaboard and thence for export to needy Europe.

Buenos Aires—Col. Juan Peron, it has been revealed, has been employing Rudolph Freude as his chief aide in his presidential campaign. Freude is the son of the top-ranking Nazi Ludwig Freude, recognized internationally as the head of the Argentinian Fascists.

McGill Puck Squad Tackles Loyola Tonight

Red and White Play Exhibition On Loyola Ice

Mentor Campbell Makes Additions To Hockey Team

As a tune-up for next Friday's game in Toronto the McGill Senior hockey team will meet Loyola tonight, in an exhibition tilt on Loyola ice at 8.30.

Unbeaten so far this season, the Red and White squad will meet a team of intercollegiate caliber in the Westend aggregation as shown by their recent win over the Carabins, even though they are playing in an intermediate league.

Besides the regulars of the Red team, Coach Dave Campbell announced last night that Ward Pitfield, Ernie Spiller and Jack Miller from Dawson will don the Red and White uniform to bolster the already star-studded Red team. This trio will in all probability play on the same forward line.

PORTEOUS BACK

The other two forward lines will include the ever-threatening Hale Sinclair trio and the Pierson, O'Connor and Porteous triumvirate, successful crusaders all of the hockey wars. O'Connor is presently leading the league in point getting. He has credited with 10 assists which should brand him as a truly great play-making pivotman.

The blue line brigade will include Bob Broderick, Gordie Gosselin, Doug Heron and Cy Beigler, four stalwarts whom Coach Campbell wouldn't trade for a brick wall as a defensive measure. Between the pipes Jack Gelineau will mount guard.

Intermediates Vie For Hoop Title

Start Two Game Total Point Series Against Carabins

The McGill Intermediate cage squad enters the play-offs this evening at the Currie Gym when they face the Carabins of the U. of M. at 8.30 p.m. This tilt will be a preliminary to the Senior M.B.L. games which have advanced to the playdown stage as well. The M.B.L. contests will see the powerful Y.M.H.A. squad facing the Shipmates, and Southwestern "Y" opposing the Georgian entry.

The Intermediate Red and White cagers have displayed fine form to date and ended the regular schedule in first place. In the play-off series starting tonight the Redmen take on the fourth place Carabins, while Dawson and Georgians, who ended the season in a second-place tie, will vie for further honours. The results will be decided on a two-game total-point basis.

Coach Ronnie Rutherford has made no changes in his line-up and has been drilling the boys hard to keep them on their toes. The squad has been paced by Davine, Beauregard and Allan to date, who, with the rest of the team, can always be counted upon to produce a steady game both defensively and offensively.

McGill Sends Matmen To Kingston Tourney

Coincident with the boxing tournament to be held at Queen's this coming weekend, McGill will send a Wrestling team to Kingston also to compete for the Intercollegiate Wrestling Championships.

After several grappling contests staged locally in which they have secured some measure of success, the McGill mat artists promise to present some powerful opposition to the competing universities.

A five man "grab and grunt" team will represent McGill including S. H. Raymond, 135 lbs., C. Calderon, 145, J. Sabath, 155, J. McLeod, 165, and W. Kowal, 175. Joe "Doc" Sabath is the provincial novice title-holder of his class.

WAX AND TRACKS....

by R.L.M.

The Laurentian Zone Slalom Championships will be held on Scots Slip at Mount Gabriel. Scots Slip is on the south side of Mount Gabriel, and offers a 900 foot run with conditions for a good stiff slalom course.

The race will be open to all classes of men and women. Entries must be made in writing and should include: name, club, class, and 50 cents entry fee. They may be mailed, given to either Bob Wallace, 4542 St. Catherine west, or Mr. Fred Urquhart, 129 Morrison Ave., Town of Mount Royal, and must be received by 5 p.m. Friday, February 22. Post entries or entries by phone cannot and will not be accepted.

A large list of entries is expected and, if circumstances permit, there may be two slalom courses. One would be for ladies and juniors, and one for senior men. This might also permit two runs for each racer, but the plans

Davies' Cagers To Play Gaels In Currie Gym

Traditional Rivals To Open Series On Friday Night

The Senior McGill hoopsters will be closing their intercollegiate home schedule this Saturday evening when they face the Gaels from Kingston at the Currie Gym at 8.30 p.m. Although out of the title hunt the Redmen will be fighting to keep out of the cellar slot, now occupied by the Gaels.

The Red and White quintet are running out their schedule with one game left at Kingston after this Saturday's encounter. The traditionally rivalry between McGill and Queen's will add color to the proceedings, with the dance after the game expected to bring out a large flock of supporters.

Coach Lou Davies will be relying on his starting line-up to come through to take the honors and has been putting his charges through a series of stiff practices to do away with the faults that were in evidence on the team's last week-end jaunt.

'DUKE' READY

Stellar Dave Greenburg, the squad's high scorer, will start at centre with smooth-playing Ron Bower and George Davidson completing the forward line. The two starry reliables, Pete Finlay and Ken Hoyle, will start in defence positions.

After the completion of their intercollegiate schedule the Senior cagersmen will be facing the Y.M.H.A.

Boxing Team Entered In Intercollegiate Meet

The McGill Boxing Club travels to Kingston, Ontario, next weekend where they will exhibit their wares in a two day intercollegiate meet, on Friday and Saturday nights. This tourney will feature entries from most of the traditional rivals among Eastern universities and the college pugilists will be battling it out for the Intercollegiate Championships.

McGill will be represented by seven exponents of the "manly art" in as many classes. These include R. Bassel, 118 lbs., R. Morrow, 125, A. McAdam, 135, E. Robinson, 145, K. Boucher, 155, J. Piper, 165 and D. Common, 175.

EN-GARDE

(McGill Daily—B. Sablot)

GEORGE TULLY, coach of the McGill fencing club, who is preparing his team for intercollegiate play. With a team of four he will invade Toronto on Saturday night in the first such competition since 1939-40.

Tully Leads Fencers To Toronto Tourney

This coming Saturday the quick-footed McGill fencers travel to Toronto where they will compete for the Walters Trophy and the Team and Individual Championships. Coached by George Tully the Red Fencing Club will include captain Peter Eakins, Robert Moffatt, Andrew Esfakis and L. Druckman.

This fencing tournament will be the first held since the 1939-40 season and promises to attract many fencing enthusiasts.

Campbell Men Take On Blues In Queen City

Unbeaten Teams Battle For Lead On Friday Night

The Senior McGill puckmen will be facing their stiffest opposition to date when they take to the ice this Friday evening against the Varsity squad in the Queen City. Both the Redmen and the Blues are undefeated to date and out of their two tills in successive weekends will come the C.I.A.U. hockey titlists for the 1945-46 season.

By virtue of their four straight victories the locals find themselves leading the field into the home stretch. Coach Dave Campbell's charges have shown superb form to date and it will take some mighty fine hockey on the part of Ace Bailey's crew to come through with a victory. The administration of a 14-0 drubbing to the Gaels from Queen's this past weekend shows the all-round ability of the squad that boasts two of the best forward lines in the circuit.

SERIOUS TEST

The Blues will be a serious test for the Redmen in that they have met with but one defeat this season and that at the hands of one of Ontario's best senior teams, the Toronto Staffords.

McGill and Varsity have not met in a hockey tilt since the 1939-40 season when the Blues copied the laurels, sending the Red squad down to two straight defeats. Previous to this the Redmen had taken

Gymnasts in Tourney At Toronto Saturday

Em Orlick will bring his Gymnastics team to Toronto for an intercollegiate tournament to be held at Varsity next Saturday night. This tourney will mark the return to intercollegiate gymnastics after six years of inactivity because of wartime restrictions.

After many long hours of grueling practice on the high bars, parallel bars, rings, mat and boxes, the McGill gymnasts are reported to be in tip top condition for this coming tourney. The team will include J. S. Foster, J. F. King, A. Henderson, W. T. Leslie, F. E. Barrett and J. C. Savage, all of them truly smart gymnasts.

SENIOR HOCKEY TEAM

The McGill Senior hockey team will meet this afternoon at 5:30 p.m. whence they will proceed to the Forum where they will dress for the game against Loyola.

The honours twelve times since the season of 1902-03, winning the coveted Thompson Trophy seven years consecutively, from 1932-33 through to 1938-39.

WHAT DO YOU PLAN TO BE

Electrical Engineer?

You can't afford to be careless with a live wire. Nor can you afford to be careless about money matters when you enter the world of business. A sensible plan is to practice careful money management while you are still at college. Open a savings account of your own, even though deposits at first may be small. Thrift is a good habit now and for the future and can be an important factor in your success.

UNDER THE SINK - with Georgie

Comes the elections and you engineers will not know who to vote for unless you check up on the man to represent you. Don't forget to read up on all of them, not just the platform of your best friend. The point is that we must elect the best man for each and every one of these jobs. The seriousness of the situation can not be overemphasized. These men will be responsible for all the organizations of the coming year. So we went to see every man fully aware of the capacities of his candidate... Congratulations to Dave Townsend on his election by acclamation. We're sure that you will do a good job of Publicity Manager, Dave!...

HEARD AROUND THE COMMON ROOM...

This bridge playing is keeping a lot of the boys from getting a seat to have their lunch, wish they would pick a better time for it, granted that the game is interesting... When is the next Monkey Wrench going to come out? Ans: "As soon as we manage to get the necessary advertising. How about a bit of help, fellows, it's for a good cause..." First laments on the proximity of the examinations; second year men found out the bad news today... Wonder what the generous professor was thinking of when he offered to stop the lecture at 3:45? Of course the boys asked that he go right on, Darned if he didn't continue after all. You'll be sorry fellows... "Mr. Cromble gave swell talk this afternoon, I hope we get more of the same type, they are extremely enlightening..."

LETTER FROM DAWSON...

Dear Georgie,

With exams a mere six weeks away, the brightest spot on the campus (?) these nights in Dawson Hall, that's Plumbers mill a la St. Johns. Yes Dawson Engineers are forsaking the more lucrative hobbies such as dominoes, tidlywinks, and poker for study. I still can't see how they do it, and specially why. After all, it's not for knowledge that we go to college, so why the exertion. With all the wind and the water around, the situation is becoming pretty grim. Will you believe me Georgie, if I tell you that one engineer, when asked where the dining hall was, replied "Follow the boardwalk for 100 yards (C.O.T.C. official measurement), then if you don't fall in, and you escape the slamming doors and flying glass you're there". Another student suggested the purchase of 600 pairs of rubber boots and two row boats for the spring thaw... Everything is back to normal that's what they keep telling us in the lectures) after the return of the Calculus papers, and George, don't worry anymore about the plumber who tried to end it all, they caught him just before he tried to make a date with a science "man." Well, back we go to a week of slipping and sliding and I don't mean our slide-rules. So long Georgie, see you next week, I hope...

THE ENGINEERS ARE TALKING ABOUT...

The engineer of the week, Phil Laporta. One of the men tried to keep tab on Phil last week. He didn't fare too badly, of course his legs will never be the same. Phil, as a member of the E.U.S. executive has done a terrific job. What with the banquet, his specialty, the Plumbers' Ball, the social committee, the professional committee, contact committee, and all the rest, he sure is a busy man. A member in good standing of the class of '46 in Mechanical Engineering, Phil was the faculty observer at the E.I.C. annual convention here in Montreal recently. Vice-president of his class last year, he has a lengthy record of achievements in his college career. We sure hate to see you go, Phil, but we know that after you graduate, McGill will lose one of its best engineering students, and the world will gain another good man who will uphold the honor of Plumbers' Hall at McGill. Keep up the good work and the very best of luck in your chosen career, Phil...

government-proposed deportation scheme, and that the decision of the Court was as yet unknown. The meeting, the Council members reported, was attended by a large number of representatives from various Montreal societies and clubs representatives of which were all opposed to the government deportation plan.

Harold Aimes, Council representative to the local NFCUS committee on this campus reported to the Council and submitted to members the recently drawn up constitution of that group. The constitution was handed on to the Council committee on constitutions for further study and will be discussed at a subsequent meeting. Some 30 students, representatives of McGill clubs, Aimes reported, attended a recent meeting of the NFCUS committee at which plans for the future were made. It is planned, the Council learned, to contact the regional NFCUS Vice-President with the view of holding a regional NFCUS conference in the near future.

The Council moved later, that a letter be sent to the Canadian Association of Scientific Workers, McGill Branch, whose constitution, submitted to the Council previously had not been accepted, informing that body, that since a subsequent constitution had not been submitted to the Council in spite of several demands, the CASW was therefore not to be considered a campus organization and could not hold meetings in any campus buildings. It was also decided that a letter be sent to the Principal informing him of the Council's decision.

Further business dealt with by the Council included a report on the McGill Handbook which is being revised by the Council this year; Alec Ross (Engineering) reported that an editor of the Handbook may be appointed shortly, and that handbooks from other universities will be available for study by the Council. It was also reported to the Council that no further recommendations had been made in reference to broadcasting any sessions of the McGill Mock Parliament. An appropriation of funds to supply the skating rink with a P.A. system was also granted by the Council, and a report of some changes in the Constitution of The Daily recommended by the Council previously and since approved by The Daily was read.

But one thing I do want to make clear, I am probably working as hard as most of you men are, but I am definitely willing to offer part of time to doing whatever I can for the Engineers here, both the October and January entries. I am not going to try to be dogmatic as regards to anything I think or is suggested to me but I am open to any and all suggestions, and help, naturally, that any of you have to offer.
